Indian with Powerplus Motor

Here's a stock motor that does 70 miles an hour; that's gone out and showed its pedigree by hanging world's records so high and so consistently that they can't be touched by anything else of its kind -unless another stock Powerplus goes after 'em.

The fellow who rides an Indian Powerplus leads-never has to take the dust of anything that runs on two wheels. He rides the BEST motorcycle—and proves it!

Then there's the man who wants plenty of speed, power and huskiness but not too much of either; who wants simplicity; who wants a lightweight motorcycle-not a motor-bicycle-at a moderate price. For him-the

WOMEN SCHEDULED TO BOWL IN TOURNAMENT WEDNESDAY

Several Teams to Try Their Luck in A. C B. A. Event-Will Roll Doubles and Singles Also-Other Gossip.

With ten of Washington's most prominent bowling boosters rolling the first ball down the alleys, Wednesday night will go down in the history of bowling as one of the largest nights of the A. C. B. A. tournament, now in progress at Camp Emery. As an added attraction, April 19 has been set aside for "ladies' night," and various teams will roll for the duckpin supermacy of the east. The National Capitals are under the direction of Miss "Billy" Williams, who will have as her aids Misses Frech, Thomas, Greenwood and Dismer. The Grand Centrals, led by Mrs. George L. Isemann, will present a formidable line-up in Mrs. Zeb Clark, Mrs. Deckman, Mrs. Isemann, Miss Servier, Mrs. Neff and Mrs. Vogelsberger. The Arcade team, crack pinspillers of Mount Pleasant, will have as their leader Mrs. Tom Moore, who will be followed by Mrs. Trudewind, Mrs. Schafert, Mrs. Conradis and Miss Lindig. This line-up will bear watching, as the best bowlers from the northwest will be entered.

The dark horse of the night will be Royals, captained by Miss Eckhardt, who has rolled more games over 100 than any gir in Washington. The other members of this team are Miss Pope, Mrs. Ackman, Mrs. Malcolm and Miss Noel. The Bureau teams consist of Misses Mary Ganzhorn. Louisa Ador, Bessie Ramsey, Belle Linguist, Nellie Courtney, Nellie Rollins, Anna Ballinger. Katherine George. Nellie Reh, Cora Johnson, Emily Quinn and Marjorie Ripple.

S. Kann's Sons will be ably represented by Misses Blount, Garner, Boston, Brent, McDaniels, Messiner and Beckwith. The line-ups of Maloney's Southeast Stars, Murphy's Southwest team, Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company and Woodward & Lothrop have not been definitely decided on. As an added feature, this night, candlepin singles will be rolled to determine the champion lady candiplented the champion lad

Connie Mack has refused to enter into an agreement with George Stall-ings to play another exhibition series in Florida next spring. After being heaten five straight by the Braves, Mack has concluded that the spring ex-hibitions are not a good thing.

Pitcher Ernie Shore of the Red Sox is fifteen pounds heavier than he was last season and with this added weight has come more strength. Boston critics are now saying he has almost as much speed as Walter Johnson, but the modest Shore shakes his head. However, he has enough.

League Members Banquet and Promise Organization for 886-1,160 Next Season.

> Thursday evening the members of the teams in the Royal Arcanum Bowling League, as well as officials of the league and many invited guests gathered in the hall of Kismet Council, 3d street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast, to celebrate the closing of a successful season of duckpins. A sanquet was served and musical num bers were given by Roland Roderick and William A. Morsell, accompanied by Byron Blodgett and Odell Whipple. Arthur E. Cook was toastmaster and kept the crowd laughing with his humorous introductions and references to the various prize winners. Several short talks were made by Harry G. Lenz, president of the bowling league: Frank S. Parks, grand regent; Edward A. Niess, sitting past grand regent; M. Bartow Mercer, supreme repre> sentative, and George B. Farquhar

secretary of the bowling league. Prizes were distributed as follows: Winning team, $12, Ouray Council nigh men of teams, $2 each, Springer of Ouray, 91-2; Ridout of District, 95-30; Bell of Municipal, 91-5; Wilson of National, 93-11; Herman of Capitol 90-24; Soper of Kismet, 95-28; the high team set of 1,478 went to Ouray Council, with a prize of $4; the high team game, 547, to District Council, $4; the prize of $3 for highest individual average was won by Ridout of District, with 95-30; Phelps of National Council had the highest individual game, 136, and got a prize of $2; Soper of Kismet had the highest individual set, 336, and got a prize of $2; Soper of Kismet had the highest individual set, 336, and got a prize of $2 for making it; Sorrell of Municipal Council got the most strikes, 11, and drew the two-dollar prize; Springer of Ouray had 50 spares and got the same prize; the Individual high flat game of 92 was made by Lenz, who got $2 for this distinction.

The captains of the various teams promised better organization and better players for next season. The league this year was composed of teams from Ouray, District, Municipal, National, Capitol and Kismet councils. Ouray won the championship, District second and Municipal third, while Kismet was last. prize of $3 for highest individual aver-
